TWENTY-FIRST OMNIBUS MOTION OF DEBTORS AND DEBTORS IN POSSESSION, PURSUANT TO SECTION 365 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE AND BANKRUPTCY RULE 6006, FOR AN ORDER
AUTHORIZING THE REJECTION OF CERTAIN EXECUTORY CONTRACTS

TO THE HONORABLE ARTHUR J. GONZALEZ,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Old Carco LLC f/k/a Chrysler LLC ("Old Carco") and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively with Old Carco, the "Debtors") respectfully represent as follows:

Background

1. On April 30, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), Old Carco and 24 of its affiliated Debtors (collectively, the "Original Debtors") commenced their reorganization cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). On May 19, 2009, Debtor Alpha Holding LP commenced its reorganization case by filing a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. By orders of the Court (Docket Nos. 97 and 2188), the Debtors' chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being administered jointly.

2. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. On May 5, 2009, the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors, pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors and their nondebtor direct and indirect subsidiaries (collectively, the "Old Carco Companies") comprised one of the world's largest manufacturers and distributors of automobiles and other vehicles, together with related parts and accessories. On the Petition Date, the Old Carco Companies employed approximately 55,000 hourly and salaried employees worldwide, 70% of whom were based in the United States.

5. For the 12 months ended December 31, 2008, the Old Carco Companies recorded revenue of more than $48.4 billion and had assets of approximately $39.3 billion and liabilities totaling $55.2 billion.

6. In connection with the commencement of these cases, Old Carco and its Debtor subsidiaries, Fiat S.p.A. ("Fiat") and New Chrysler (as defined below) entered into a Master Transaction Agreement dated as of April 30, 2009 (as amended and collectively with other ancillary and supporting documents, the "MTA"). The MTA provided, among other things, that: (a) Old Carco would transfer the majority of its operating assets to New CarCo Acquisition LLC n/k/a Chrysler Group LLC ("New Chrysler"), a newly established Delaware limited liability company formed by Fiat; and (b) in exchange for those assets, New Chrysler would assume certain of the Debtors' liabilities and pay to Old Carco $2 billion in cash (collectively with the other transactions contemplated by the MTA, the "Fiat Transaction"). On May 3, 2009, the Original Debtors filed a motion to approve the Fiat Transaction or a similar transaction with a competing bidder (Docket No. 190).

7. On May 31, 2009, this Court issued: (a) an Opinion Granting the Debtors' Motion Seeking Authority to Sell, Pursuant to § 363, Substantially All of the Debtors' Assets (Docket No. 3073) (the "Sale Opinion"); and (b) an Opinion and Order Regarding Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 and Troubled Asset Relief Program (Docket Nos. 3074 and 3229) (together with the Sale Opinion, the "Opinions"). On June 1, 2009 and consistent with the Sale Opinion, this Court entered an Order authorizing the Fiat Transaction (Docket No. 3232) (the "Sale Order"). On June 5, 2009, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit affirmed the Opinions and the Sale Order. Consistent with the Sale Order, the Fiat Transaction was consummated on June 10, 2009.

Jurisdiction

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

9. Pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 6006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), the Debtors hereby seek the entry of an order authorizing them to reject the executory contracts (collectively, the "Contracts") identified in Exhibit A<sup>1</sup> attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, effective as of the date hereof except in one instance noted below.

Facts Relevant to This Motion

10. The Debtors have engaged in a review of their executory contracts. As a result of their review, the Debtors have determined that the Contracts identified in Exhibit A are neither necessary nor valuable to their estates and will not be assumed and assigned in connection with the Fiat Transaction.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> For each of the Contracts, Exhibit A includes: (a) a description of the Contract; (b) the names and addresses of any nondebtor parties to the Contract; (c) the name of the Debtor party to the Contract and (d) the expiration date of the Contract.

<sup>2</sup> Each of the Contracts includes any modifications, amendments, addenda or supplements thereto or restatements thereof. Copies of the Contracts are not attached hereto, but are available from the Debtors' counsel upon request, subject to any applicable confidentiality restrictions. The terms of the Contracts are provided for convenience only and are not intended to modify, or to represent the Debtors' interpretation of, the terms of any of the Contracts.

11. The Debtors submit that each of the Contracts is an "executory contract" within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, eligible for rejection by the Debtors. To the extent that any of the Contracts already has expired or been terminated or otherwise is not "executory" within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is included herein out of an abundance of caution.<sup>3</sup>

Argument

12. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease." 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). Courts routinely approve motions to assume, assume and assign or reject executory contracts or unexpired leases upon a showing that the debtor's decision to take such action will benefit the debtor's estate and is an exercise of sound business judgment. See Orion Pictures Corp. v. Showtime Networks, Inc. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 4 F.3d 1095, 1099 (2d Cir. 1993) (stating that section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code "permits the trustee or debtor-in-possession, subject to the approval of the bankruptcy court, to go through the inventory of executory contracts of the debtor and decide which ones it would be beneficial to adhere to and which ones it would be beneficial to reject"); see also NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 523 (1984) (stating that the traditional standard applied by courts to authorize the rejection of an executory contract is that of "business judgment"); In re Old Carco LLC (f/k/a Chrysler LLC), 406 B.R. 180, 188 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (Gonzalez, J.) ("The business judgment standard is employed by courts in determining whether to permit a debtor to assume or reject a contract.").

<sup>3</sup> This Motion does not constitute an admission by the Debtors that any of the Contracts is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law. The Debtors expressly reserve their rights with respect thereto. To the extent that any Contract is unenforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law, it is included herein out of an abundance of caution.

13. Courts generally will not second-guess a debtor's business judgment concerning the assumption or rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease. See id. at 198 (recognizing that "the business judgment standard would be rendered irrelevant if the Court stepped in to second guess . . . a decision" that the Debtors can show was based on rational business factors); In re Riodizio, Inc., 204 B.R. 417, 424 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997) ("[A] court will ordinarily defer to the business judgment of the debtor's management."); accord Phar-Mor, Inc. v. Strouss Bldg. Assocs., 204 B.R. 948, 951-52 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1997) ("Whether an executory contract is 'favorable' or 'unfavorable' is left to the sound business judgment of the debtor. . . . Courts should generally defer to a debtor's decision whether to reject an executory contract.").

14. The "business judgment" test is not a strict standard; it merely requires a showing that either assumption or rejection of the unexpired lease will benefit a debtor's estate. See, e.g., Old Carco LLC, 406 B.R. at 193 (stating that "the scope of the Court's inquiry is limited. Under the business judgment standard, the Court must determine whether rejection will benefit the Debtors' estates"); Bregman v. Meehan (In re Meehan), 59 B.R. 380, 385 (E.D.N.Y. 1986) ("The business judgment test is a flexible one . . . . The primary issue under the business judgment test is whether rejection of the contract would benefit general unsecured creditors."); In re Helm, 335 B.R. 528, 538 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) ("To meet the business judgment test, the debtor in possession must establish that rejection will benefit the estate."); Westbury Real Estate Ventures, Inc. v. Bradlees, Inc. (In re Bradlees Stores, Inc.), 194 B.R. 555, 558 n.1 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("In reviewing a debtor's decision to assume or reject an executory contract, the court must examine the contract and circumstances and apply its best 'business judgment' to determine if the assumption or rejection would be beneficial or burdensome to the estate.").

15. New Chrysler has determined not to accept an assignment of the Contracts in connection with the Fiat Transaction. In addition, following the consummation of the Fiat Transaction, the Debtors are in the process of winding down their business affairs and have no further need for the Contracts. Moreover, the Debtors have determined that the Contracts do not have any realizable value in the marketplace. As such, the Contracts are neither necessary nor valuable to the Debtors' business activities or the wind down process. The Debtors believe that maintaining the Contracts under these circumstances would unnecessarily deplete the assets of the Debtors' estates to the direct detriment of their creditors.

16. With respect to all but one of the Contracts, the Debtors request that rejection be effective as of the date hereof. Courts commonly permit rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease effective as of the date on which any nondebtor parties are given definitive notice of the debtor's intent to reject. See, e.g., In re Jamesway Corp., 179 B.R. 33, 38 (S.D.N.Y. 1995) ("[A] court can, where appropriate, approve rejection retroactively."); accord In re CCI Wireless LLC, 279 B.R. 590, 595 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2002) ("This Court may — and in this instance should — approve the rejection of a non-residential lease retroactive to the filing date of the motion to reject the lease."); In re Joseph C. Spiess Co., 145 B.R. 597, 606 (N.D. Ill. 1992) (rejection is effective when the counterparty receives notice of the debtor's intent to reject).

17. In light of the fact that (a) this Motion provides the nondebtor parties to the Contracts with definitive notice of the Debtors' decision to reject and (b) the Debtors' estates are deriving no benefit from the continuation of the Contracts, the Debtors believe, in the sound exercise of their business judgment, that rejection of the Contracts effective as of the date of this Motion, except as provided below, is in the best interests of their estates and stakeholders.

18. With respect to the ACE Insurance Policy (as that term is defined in Exhibit A), the Debtors request, by agreement with ACE American Insurance Company ("ACE Insurance"), that rejection be effective as of June 10, 2009. As of the date hereof, ACE Insurance is holding approximately $20,000.00 in unearned premiums (the "Unearned Premiums") under the ACE Insurance Policy. ACE Insurance asserts that it may set off the Unearned Premiums against its prepetition claim against the Debtors, which ACE Insurance has asserted in proof of claim numbers 9802 to 9810, each of which was filed on September 25, 2009 in the estimated amount of $14,253,166.00 (collectively, the "ACE Claim"). Without concession or waiver of any kind in connection with the ACE Claim or the alleged right of setoff, the Debtors have agreed to allow ACE Insurance to hold, but not to apply, the Unearned Premiums pending reconciliation of the ACE Claim. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to the Unearned Premiums, the ACE Claim and the alleged right of setoff.

Notice

19. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases. In accordance with the Administrative Order, Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(c), Establishing Case Management and Scheduling Procedures (Docket No. 661) (the "Case Management Order"), entered on May 12, 2009, notice of this Motion has been given to the parties identified on the General Service List and the Special Service List (as such terms are identified in the Case Management Order), and to the nondebtor counterparties to the Contracts identified in Exhibit A. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

No Prior Request

20. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court (a) enter an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, granting the relief requested herein; and (b) grant such other and further relief to the Debtors as the Court may deem proper.
